

National Committee on Accreditation NCA Language Testing Requirements

The NCA's Assessment Policy provides that all Applicants are required to demonstrate proficiency in communicating in at least one (1) of Canada's two (2) official languages, English and French. An Applicant will be considered to have demonstrated the required proficiency in English or French if:

- a. the language of instruction of the Applicant's Qualifying Law Degree was English or French; and
- b. the Qualifying Law Degree was obtained in a country where English or French is an official language.

An Applicant who does not meet the language requirement must provide, within two (2) years of their file being ready for assessment, evidence of successful completion of:

- a. a test accepted by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada as proof of English language proficiency with a minimum score set by the NCA in the sole discretion of the Executive Director in each of the following elements: writing, speaking, reading and listening; or
- b. a test accepted by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada or Immigration Quebec as proof of French language proficiency with a minimum score set by the NCA in the sole discretion of the Executive Director in each of the following elements: writing, speaking, reading and listening.
